VOXX International Corporation Hosts Halloween Fundraiser for UCP of Long Island

Hauppauge, NY – VOXX International Corporation hosted a Halloween fundraiser for UCP of Long Island at the company’s Hauppauge headquarters on October 31, 2016.

VOXX International employees donated five dollars to dress in costume on Halloween Day and UCP of Long Island participants served as judges in the corporation’s costume contest. Proceeds raised during the fundraiser will support programs and services which UCP of Long Island provides to children and adults with disabilities.

“We have done this fundraiser over five times,” said Chris Lis Johnson, Vice President of Employee Programs at VOXX International. “This is a great way to encourage our employees to give back and get satisfaction from it.”

Before judging costumes, UCP of Long Island participants were treated to pizza and candy. Michelle, a UCP of Long Island individual, impressed everyone with her Princess Elsa from the movie, “Frozen” costume.

“I really like coming and judging the costumes,” she smiled. “And I like surprising people with the costumes I wear.”

*For over 65 years, UCP of Long Island has been committed to advancing the independence, productivity, and full citizenship of people with disabilities by creating Life Without Limits.
