UCP of Long Island to Present a Celebration of Art, Music & Fashion

Hauppauge, NY – United Cerebral Palsy of Long Island is pleased to present an evening Celebrating Art, Music & Fashion: A Night in Monte Carlo at the Larkfield in East Northport, NY on Wednesday, April 18th at 6:30 p.m.

Guests will enjoy a cocktail reception, followed by an elegant buffet dinner and extensive Viennese display. The Staller Center of the Arts will provide musical entertainment to our guests reminiscent of “ragtime”. The event will feature casino gaming by Event Kings, luxury cars courtesy of Velocity Driving and art pieces created by UCP-LI artists. Fashion will be provided by Chico’s and Edward Alan Big N Tall. Silent auction items and raffles will feature items by local jewelry designer, Stephanie Occhipinti Designs and Triple Crown Fundraising.

Co-Chair Andrew Corrado, SVP at Signature Bank expressed the event is extremely special to Co-Chairs Maria and Tom Pfundstein because their son, Joey, receives services at The Children’s Center at UCP. “A Night in Monte Carlo will be an evening filled with excitement, unique entertainment and exemplary company, all in support of an amazing organization”, said Maria Pfundstein.

“The evening promises to be a celebration of art, music and fashion; supporting our mission to create Life Without Limits for people with disabilities”, said Stephen H. Friedman, President and CEO of UCP of Long Island. “Proceeds from this event will support the many programs and services provided by our agency, which helps our individuals flourish and lead fulfilling lives.”

UCP of Long Island thanks its major sponsors Sterling National Bank, The Carol and Arnold Wolowitz Foundation, BNB Bank, Esquire Bank, Jackson Lewis PC, People’s United Bank, The Pfundstein Family and Signature Bank for their generous support.
