UCP of Long Island Honors Brian Edwards and Sterling National Bank with Special Performance by The Sensations and Sensations Jr.

Hauppauge, NY – United Cerebral Palsy of Long Island will hold its annual Life Without Limits Gala on Friday, October 26, 2018 at Flowerfield in St. James, NY. This year’s event will honor Brian Edwards, President of Consumer Banking for Sterling National Bank.

Mr. Edwards is being honored for his commitment and dedication to UCP-LI. Brian is personally committed to UCP’s mission and cares deeply about the adults and children in all of the programs. In addition to his support of UCP-LI, Mr. Edwards is the Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of SCO Family of Services, a board member of both the Education and Assistance Corporation (EAC) and Advancement for Commerce, Industry and Technology (ACIT).

“We are honored to honor Mr. Edwards from Sterling National Bank for his support and generosity towards the individuals UCP of Long Island serves,” said Stephen H. Friedman, President & CEO of UCP of Long Island. “We look forward to a lovely evening in which participants, families and supporters will come together and celebrate our mission of creating Life Without Limits for people with disabilities.”

The evening will begin with cocktails and exclusive auctions followed by a sit-down dinner, awards presentation, and entertainment and dancing. The dynamic Sensations and Sensations Jr., our in house talented musicians from the Long Island Adult Day Services Program and The Children’s Center, are set to put a memorable performance for all of guests.

Proceeds from the gala will help to support UCP of Long Island’s vital programs and services geared towards advancing the independence, productivity and full citizenship of individuals with disabilities.

UCP of Long Island recognizes our Pioneer for Change Sponsor, Sterling National Bank. Other sponsors include We Transport/Towne Bus Corp., The M&T Charitable Foundation and Flowerfield Celebrations.
